Discretionary Expenses

There are other discretionary expenses which students could incur. These may vary from student to student but a conservative estimate would be $2,500 per year. These expenses could include:

- School camps/overnight trips
- Extra curricular activities
- NZQA - NCEA entry fees ($383.30)
- Holiday activities
- Summer holiday homestay retainer fee
- School stationery
- Specialist class fees
- Course related fees
- Visa applications
- Out of school tuition, eg. Music

These fees and expenses do not include personal weekly allowances, communication and stationery costs for personal use.

Te Awamutu College has a Fee Protection policy to safeguard the fees paid by International Students, in the unlikely event that the school may not be able to commence or continue to deliver tuition to the international student. The School's Board guarantees to hold in reserve sufficient funds to meet the requirements of any refund in these circumstances.
